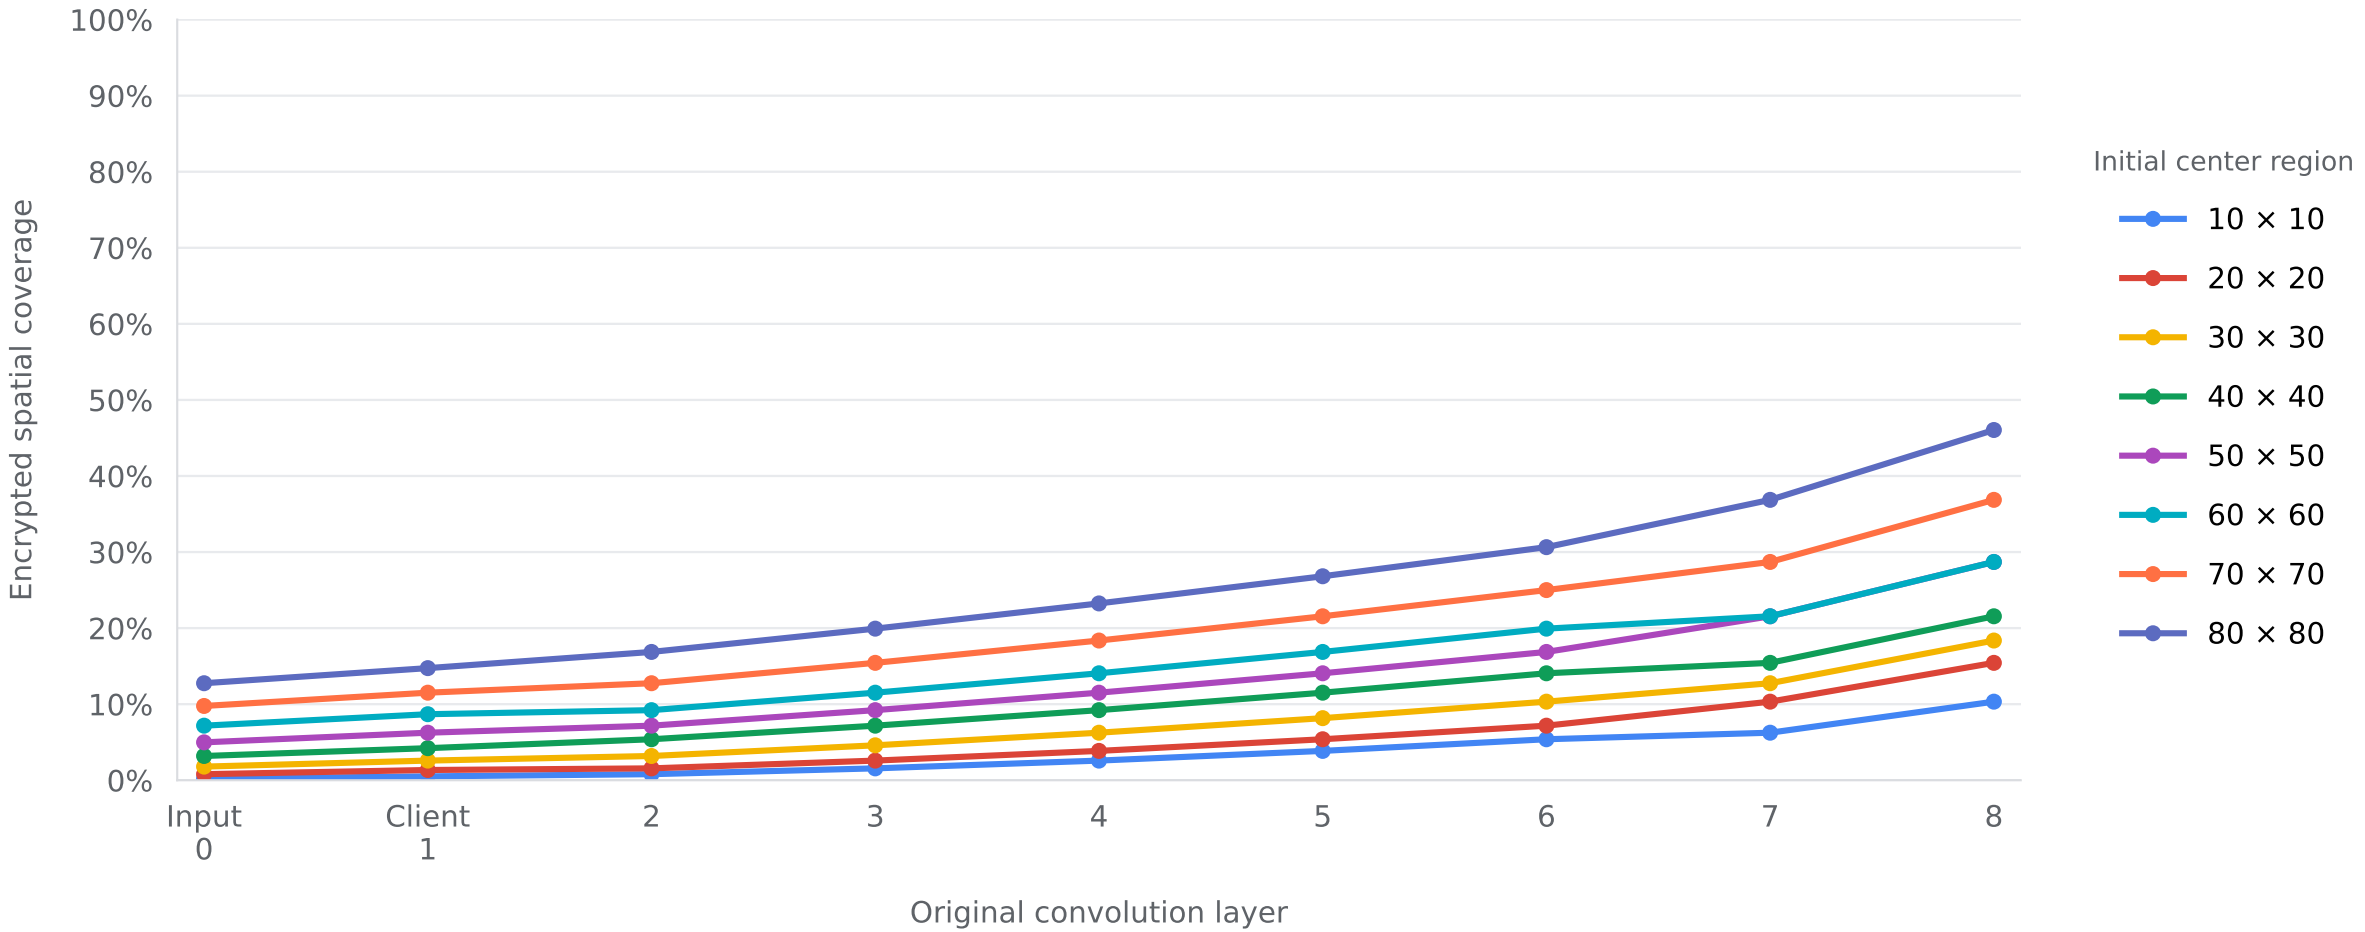
How encrypted coverage grows across layers

Center regions 10 × 10 to 80 × 80 • Client computes layer 1; server computes layers 2–8



Coverage = (encrypted rectangle height × width) / (feature-map height × width).

All channels share the spatial mask; values come from recorded layouts, not ciphertext slot utilization.